

INVITATION

Co-operation and partnership solutions with working life in finding ways to enhance employability of international graduates

Tuesday, 8th Nov 2011, 09:00 – 17:00

University of Luxembourg - Campus Kirchberg

Open seminar organised by the “Quicker Steps” project

The purpose of the workshop is to explore approaches to support the employment of students with international and migrant backgrounds before and after graduation. These challenges are discussed in terms of economic innovation within a multilingual and -cultural working context with all the actors involved, i.e. academics responsible for training programs, representatives of working life and concerned students.

The participation in the seminar is free of charge. To register, please fill the online registration form by 24 October 2011 <http://www.quickersteps.net/workshops/2-workshop-austria>

Looking forward to welcoming you at the University of Luxembourg!
